Probated Reports Annotated: Containing Recent Cases of General Value Decided in the Courts of the Several States on Points of Probate Law. With Notes and References. By Frank S. Rice, Counsellor at Law, author of "American Probate Law," "Civil and Criminal Evidence," and "Modern Law of Real Property." Vol. 5. Baker, Voorhis & Company, New York. 1901.

This valuable series is truly a luxury when one is confronted by a question of probate law. Indeed, to the probate judge or practitioner the series is a necessity, for in its exhaustive notes are found most valuable collections of the law from all jurisdictions touching the precise points with which he has to deal. Mr. Clements notes or annotations in Vol. 5 are very full and add greatly to the value of the volume. The variety and importance of the topics covered by the Monographic Notes will be seen by the following list of the subjects treated in the Notes: Creditors' Remedy as Against Land, Delusions, Election by Widow, Declaration of Testator as Evidence, Evidence of Transactions with Deceased, Powers of Administrator with Will Annexed, Power of Administrator over Land, Employment of Attorney by Executor or Administrator, Continuance of Business of Deceased by Executor or Administrator, Replevin as against Executor, Funeral Expenses, Foreign Guardian, Transactions between Guardian and Ward, Contracts of Guardian, Effect of Omission to File Inventory, Laches, Expense as between Life Tenant and Remainder-Men, Termination of Power of Sale, Execution of a Power by the Court, Distinction between Power and Trust, Inheritance Tax, Precatory Trusts, Transactions between Trustee and Cestui Que Trust, Vesting, Wills—What Law Governs, Effect of Marriage on Will, Mental Capacity to Make a Will, Signing of Will, Witnesses to Will, Jurisdiction to Construe Wills.

A Treatise on Equitable Remedies; Supplementary to Pomeroy's Equity Jurisprudence. (Interpleader; Receivers; Injunction; Reformation and Cancellation; Partition; Quieting Title; Specific Performance; Creditors' Suits; Subrogation; Accounting; etc.) By John Norton Pomeroy, Jr., A. M., LL. B. In two Volumes. Bancroft-Whitney Company, Law Publishers and Law Book-sellers. San Francisco. 1905.

Pomeroy's Equity Jurisprudence is one of the "legal classics." The senior Pomeroy, who gave to the profession the original edition and whose work receives such universal recognition, died before he could complete the work which he originally mapped out, and now in the publication of this first volume on Equitable Remedies and the second which is soon to follow, John Norton Pomeroy, Jr., is but completing the work which his father so ably begun. It is proposed that the two volumes on Equitable Remedies shall be supplemental to the four volumes already issued on Equity Jurisprudence. The work is one of the utmost importance to the pro-
